GATHERED BY THE LONG ARMS OF THE CROSS

The Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 8, 2026

IN-PERSON and LIVESTREAM WORSHIP at splcm.org/worship
Video streamed in Sunday School Wing

Welcome to St. Peter!

Guests to our community are welcome here. We greet you warmly and invite you to ask an usher or one of our members for any assistance you may require.

Please use the Record of Fellowship to indicate your presence with us this morning and provide us with up-to-date contact information.

Prayer requests may be added to the green-colored form, “Our Gathering Prayers,” next to the guest book near the front entrance.

Personal Assisted Listening Devices with adjustable volume control are available from the usher.

Doxological Hymns conclude with a doxological verse (words of praise addressed to the Triune God) and are so indicated with a Δ. Children are invited to pick up a hand bell from the greeters at the entryway to ring on these verses.

Bible story bags are available for young children to use during the service. They can be found on the “tree” in the narthex.

A Special Welcome to Children Please relax and enjoy your time here. Jesus knows that children tend to wiggle and squawk a bit, so please don’t feel embarrassed by it. Your children are welcome at St. Peter. We know that your children are a gift to the Church, so we will do our best to welcome, smile, encourage, help, and bless you all. We rejoice in Jesus’ words, “Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these” (Luke 18:16).

Should you need a quiet space, we have a Cry Room at the back of the sanctuary available for use by parents with small children. For parents needing more space, a larger Family Room is partitioned off in the Sunday School Wing where the service is streamed on a television monitor. Just ask an usher for assistance.

Restrooms are located to the right of the front entrance through the coatroom.

Electronic Devices You are invited to disconnect from the world and be open for God’s connection with you. Please turn off your devices during the worship service.

AS WE ARE GATHERED BY THE CROSS

The Righteousness of Christ

Jesus warns that “unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 5:20), but He also calls His imperfect people “the salt of the earth” and “the light of the world” (Matt. 5:13, 14). The Lord Jesus came to fulfill the Law and the prophets (Matt. 5:17) in perfect faith and love for us. God manifests His “demonstration of the Spirit and of power” in “Jesus Christ and him crucified” (1 Cor. 2:2–4), and through the Gospel He gives His “secret and hidden wisdom” (1 Cor. 2:7). Christ gives this perfect righteousness to His people, and it leads them to true fasting, which is “to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free” (Is. 58:6) and “to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house” (Is. 58:7).

READINGS AND RESPONSES

FIRST LESSON – Isaiah 58:3–9a

True and False Fast

³“Why have we fasted, and you see it not?

Why have we humbled ourselves, and you take no knowledge of it?”

Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure,
 and oppress all your workers.

⁴Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight
 and to hit with a wicked fist.

Fasting like yours this day
 will not make your voice to be heard on high.

⁵Is such the fast that I choose,
 a day for a person to humble himself?

Is it to bow down his head like a reed,
 and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him?

Will you call this a fast,

and a day acceptable to the LORD?
 6“Is not this the fast that I choose:
 to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke,
 to let the oppressed go free,
 and to break every yoke?
 7Is it not to share your bread with the hungry
 and bring the homeless poor into your house;
 when you see the naked, to cover him,
 and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?
 8Then shall your light break forth like the dawn,
 and your healing shall spring up speedily;
 your righteousness shall go before you;
 the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.
 9Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
 you shall cry, and he will say, ‘Here I am.’”

SECOND LESSON – 1 Corinthians 2:1–16

Proclaiming Christ Crucified

¹And I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. ²For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. ³And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, ⁴and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

Wisdom from the Spirit

⁶Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. ⁷But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. ⁸None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹But, as it is written,

“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the heart of man imagined,
what God has prepared for those who love him” —

¹⁰these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. ¹¹For who knows a person’s thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. ¹²Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. ¹³And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual.

¹⁴The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. ¹⁶“For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.

HOLY GOSPEL – Matthew 5:13-20

- P The Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew, the 5th chapter:

C Glo - ry to you, O Lord.

Salt and Light

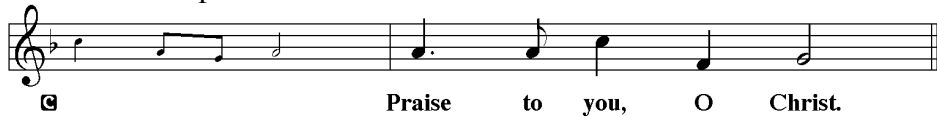

¹³[Jesus said:] “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people’s feet.

¹⁴“You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

Christ Came to Fulfill the Law

¹⁷“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. ¹⁸For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Distribution Notes

The Lord's Supper is joyfully received here today. At the altar, our Lord Jesus Christ gives us a tremendous gift. His body and blood in, with, and under the bread and wine forgives our sins, strengthens our faith, binds us to the Lord, and embodies our unity with one another. Accordingly, in 1 Corinthians 11, St. Paul cautions Christians to receive the Supper together only when they are united in a common faith and love. If you are new to our congregation, please see the pastor before communing.

Please fill in around the altar accordingly: Fellowship Hall Side: fill in from the back to the front; Sunday School Side: fill in from the front to the back.

- * Those not communing are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicating so by crossing your arms over your chest.
- * Those communing will receive the host from the pastor and may receive the consecrated wine by Common Cup OR Individual Cup.
 - Common Cup: Offered by the elder, by guiding the base of the cup with your hand.
 - Individual Cup: Available as you process down the center aisle from the individual cup dispenser. Twist and pull upward to receive an empty cup. An elder will fill your cup at the altar. Place the used individual cup in the collection basket.

After receiving the elements you may return to your pews. Please inform an usher if you want the elements to be brought to you.

My beauty are, my glorious dress;
Midst flaming worlds, in these arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head. 2 Bold shall I stand in that great day,
Cleansed and redeemed, no debt to pay;
Fully absolved through these I am
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame. 3 Lord, I believe Thy precious blood,
Which at the mercy seat of God
Pleads for the captives' liberty,
Was also shed in love for me. | 4 Lord, I believe, were sinners more
Than sands upon the ocean shore,
Thou hast for all a ransom paid,
For all a full atonement made. 5 When from the dust of death I rise
To claim my mansion in the skies,
This then shall be my only plea:
Jesus hath lived and died for me. 6 Jesus, be endless praise to Thee,
Whose boundless mercy hath for me,
For me, and all Thy hands have made,
